DON'T MISS OUT!

Join In Knowsley Lanes World Book Day Celebrations

1st March - Celebrating Bug Club!

We're starting the week with a challenge! We challenge ALL children to log into Bug Club and read book on there. As an additional challenge we encourage the children, (parents too if you want!) to dress up as a bug and send a picture in of you completing the task.

2nd March - Make Your Favourite Character

Lets get Creative! Make your favourite book character. There are some great ideas on the link below - the children can create ANY character from a book, using absolutely ANYTHING they want to do it!

3rd March - Calling All Illustrators & Can You Guess The Masked Reader?

We have some cracking little budding illustrators among our children- time to give them a chance to shine! Check out the link below for some online inspiration from the professionals!

PLUS - KL's Masked Reader! Keep your eyes on Dojo & Twitter today, see if you can guess the masked readers, there will all be very familiar voices each reading a section of a story – can you guess who they all are?

4th March - Knowsley Lane's Bedtime Stories

WORLD BOOK DAY! Today's the main event, a day to dress up as you favourite character and celebrate the wonderful world of books! Alternatively why not dress in your favourite pyjamas snuggle down and watch KL's bedtime stories! You have seen CBeebies Bedtime Stories, well now we have our very own KL version. Now children can access a 'bedtime' story anytime they want! With stories being read to them by staff from their KL family, with love.

5th March— Competition Time!

We will be rounding off the literacy filled week with a plan based around Chris Evan's annual short story writing competition.

Also a video created by the dedicated staff for our children will be shown on Dojo.
